

I'm generally against copy protection. However if this does go through, please make sure to allow fair use like recording to a closed product like a TiVo. I don't see much use for recording to DVD or sharing of the program outside of the house (sharing with other receivers in the home is very useful), but the less I can use the TiVo to watch on my own schedule, the less I will watch due to working strange schedules.